OREGON ASSOCIATION FOR COURT ADMINISTRATION

ABOUT OACA

Oregon Association for Court Administration is a professional organization committed to excellence. The association was established in 1977 and is Oregon's only organization for court professionals and those interested in the Courts of Oregon. Our membership includes Justice, Municipal, Tribal and State Court Staff, students, vendors, active and retired judges, and others who share an interest in Oregon Courts.

OACA MISSION

The goal of the OACA Board is to provide beneficial and reasonably priced learning experiences. This is done through conferences held biannually, one in the spring and one in the fall. Each conference provides formal training and allows attendees the opportunity to network with people from similar court environments. The Board works very hard to develop the educational agenda for each conference.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT, CHRISTINE

Greetings,

I can hardly believe this is my tenth President's message! As always, I am honored to be serving for a third term as President of this organization. The board and I would like to thank you for your membership and support. We continually strive to bring you the best education and networking possible.

Speaking of membership, it's that time again! Please get your renewals submitted as soon as possible. You can renew online now and I highly recommend it. Once your renewal is received you will retain (or gain if you're a new member) access to our websites, www.oaca.org, members only section.

Our website has been completely upgraded and is constantly updated. I encourage you to utilize the chat room feature as we have done away with the Yahoo chat group all together. If you have any questions or recommendations regarding the website, please contact me at chris-tinewatts@mcminnvilleoregon.gov or Allison Sederlin at asederlin@springfield-or.gov and we'd be happy to assist you. Allison not only serves as our Treasurer, she is the go to guru for the website as well. She does an amazing job and we all benefit from her amazing abilities!

We are pleased to announce we will no longer issue thumb drives containing conference materials to attendees when they check in at conference. All conference materials will be located on our website. You will receive access to the materials after you register for the conference. When I first starting attending conferences, we had the huge binders to lug around and then we transitioned to thumb drives. This transition is the best yet. and supports our effort to go green. Progress!

In this edition of The Echo you will find the registration form for our spring conference. We are pleased to be holding it at The Hallmark Resort in Newport, OR. Take a moment to check out this link, <http://www.hallmarkinns.com/newport> to view the accommodations. We held a conference there years ago and they have since remodeled. Conference Vice President Shawn Branson and I did a site visit and were quite impressed and we think you will be too. Every room is an ocean view and we will be having a bon fire Monday night! Please be sure to register by the deadline listed on the conference registration form.

As a reminder, if your court is facing financial constraints, I encourage you to apply for the vendor scholarship. Note the deadline for eligibility!

The next board meeting will strictly be a goal setting session. This board has several projects we want to tackle. We are going to dedicate time to review and update the by-laws, revamp the membership outreach flyer and several other items. If you have any suggestions for improvement please speak up!

I hope to see you at the beach!

Warmest regards,

Chris

EDUCATION

Is it just me? Has this been a rough winter? With everything from politics to weather and all that we have on our plates, it just seems like everyone is being pulled in too many directions.

I hope you are looking forward to the spring OACA Conference as a time to relax, rejuvenate, and connect with others who share at least an understanding of the workplace obstacles we face as court employees. Our roles are often changing. Jeff Johnson will be back to teach us how to deal with changes in his seminar Change Management: Ignite the Power Within. We are touching on some difficult subjects this time around. Dave Nelson from CIS will be talking to us about security assessments. Todd Baltzel from Newberg PD will present on domestic violence. Instead of our usual Q & A for DMV, we will have Kristopher Kyes, Medical Programs Coordinator from ODOT speaking to us about medically at-risk drivers. MSU classes on Court and Community Communications will be shared by all membership on Monday. We will close with our rap sessions on Tuesday. Bring your questions and discussion topics and plan to participate to make your rap session a success.

One more note. Do remember to check out oaca.org as it changes constantly. We are trying to utilize the website for more and more of our operations, and I think it is a helpful tool. Check out the Education tab to find out about the programs available through OACA and MSU. This is also where you will find the form for credit for outside training. Print out a form to take with you to your next workplace training so you can get OACA credit.

Keep on truckin' friends! We'll see you in April!

Mary

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Greetings my OACA friends! Can you believe it is almost time for our spring conference?!!! After a hard winter, I am looking forward to the spring, and our spring conference; when we all can get together, enjoy some good beach food, and receive good education. OACA understands that for some, it may be hard to attend with the increasing days of budget cuts. OACA wants to make it possible for every court employee to have a chance to attend these conferences.

OACA offers a scholarship to help those in need to attend. You must have paid OACA registration fees and show financial hardship. These scholarships are brought to you by our outstanding vendors who support the organization in all we do. So please remember to say "hi" to our vendors and thank them. Without them, this would not be possible.

If you apply for a scholarship, there are a few things you must do. You will be required to write an article about a class you attended for The Echo, or other task as assigned. The tasks will be chosen for you, depending on what classes you have registered for. You will also need to submit your signed attendance sheet after the conference to OACA Secretary.

All requests must be submitted on the Vendor Scholarship application (provided in this issue of The Echo or on the OACA website), and must be received by 5:00 pm Friday, March 3, 2017.

Sue Carlile-Hopper, OACA Secretary

Please submit your registration form (be sure to include which classes you will be attending) with your application, it will be forwarded on after the review process. Good luck!

GIGGLE CORNER

The young clerk's responsibilities included bringing the judge a hot cup of coffee at the start of every day. Each morning the judge was enraged that the coffee cup arrived two-thirds full. The clerk explained that he had to rush to get the coffee delivered while it was still hot, which caused him to spill much of it along the way.

None of the Judge's yelling and insults produced a full cup of coffee, until he finally threatened to cut the clerk's pay by one-third if he continued to produce one-third less than the judge wanted.

The next morning he was greeted with a cup of coffee that was full to the brim, and the next morning and the morning after that. The judge couldn't resist gloating over his success and smugly complimented the clerk on his new technique.

"Oh, there's not much to it," admitted the clerk happily, "I take some coffee in my mouth right outside the coffee room, and spit it back in when I get outside your office."

When Grandma Goes To Court

Lawyers should never ask a Mississippi grandma a question if they aren't prepared for the answer.

In a trial, a Southern small-town prosecuting attorney called his first witness, a grandmotherly, elderly woman to the stand. He approached her and asked, 'Mrs. Jones, do you know me?' She responded, 'Why, yes, I do know you, Mr. Williams. I've known you since you were a boy, and frankly, you've been a big disappointment to me. You lie, you cheat on your wife, and you manipulate people and talk about them behind their backs. You think you're a big shot when you haven't the brains to realize you'll never amount to anything more than a two-bit paper pusher. Yes, I know you.'

The lawyer was stunned. Not knowing what else to do, he pointed across the room and asked, 'Mrs. Jones, do you know the defense attorney?'

She again replied, 'Why yes, I do. I've known Mr. Bradley since he was a youngster, too. He's lazy, bigoted, and he has a drinking problem. He can't build a normal relationship with anyone, and his law practice is one of the worst in the entire state. Not to mention he cheated on his wife with three different women. One of them was your wife. Yes, I know him.'

The defense attorney nearly died.

The judge asked both counselors to approach the bench and, in a very quiet voice, said, 'If either of you idiots asks her if she knows me, I'll send you both to the electric chair.'

Trooper, when you stripped the defendant, were your red and blue lights flashing?

Yes

Did the defendant say anything when she got out of her car?

Yes, sir.

What did she say?

What disco am I at?

CONFERENCE

Hello OACA! The spring conference will be here before you know it and you will not want to skip this one. Take a look at the registration form, pick your sessions and get your registration in! Remember, registration is due by March 3, 2017.

We are trying a location that we have not been to in many, many years.....Hallmark Resort in Newport! They wanted us back again and I think that you all will love this hotel. Each room has a view and an oceanfront balcony or patio and the rooms are beautiful. I'm excited to go there and they are very excited to have us! I know they would like to keep OACA on a spring conference rotation so I anticipate the accommodations and service to be top notch!

We have some fun planned for the Past Presidents Reception on Sunday night! We will have some yummy hors d'oeuvres and there will be live entertainment. The entertainment will be announced at conference but we will have a great time just like we always do! The reception is a perfect time to hang out with your fellow OACA members and reconnect with old friends and make new ones. Everyone is welcome and it's a fun way to end the first day of conference. If you are planning on attending, please, please, please make sure to RSVP and check the box on page 2 of the registration form. I use those confirmations of attendance as my guideline for ordering the appetizers.

Our fall conference is going to be held at Hood River Inn in Hood River on October 15th, 16th and 17th 2017. Our 2018 Spring Conference will once again be at Agate Beach Inn in Newport. I'm working on getting the next fall conference booked and, while I am not completely sure yet, I am thinking it may be in the Bend area.

Thank you everyone and can't wait to see you at the beach.
